Mrs. Helm,

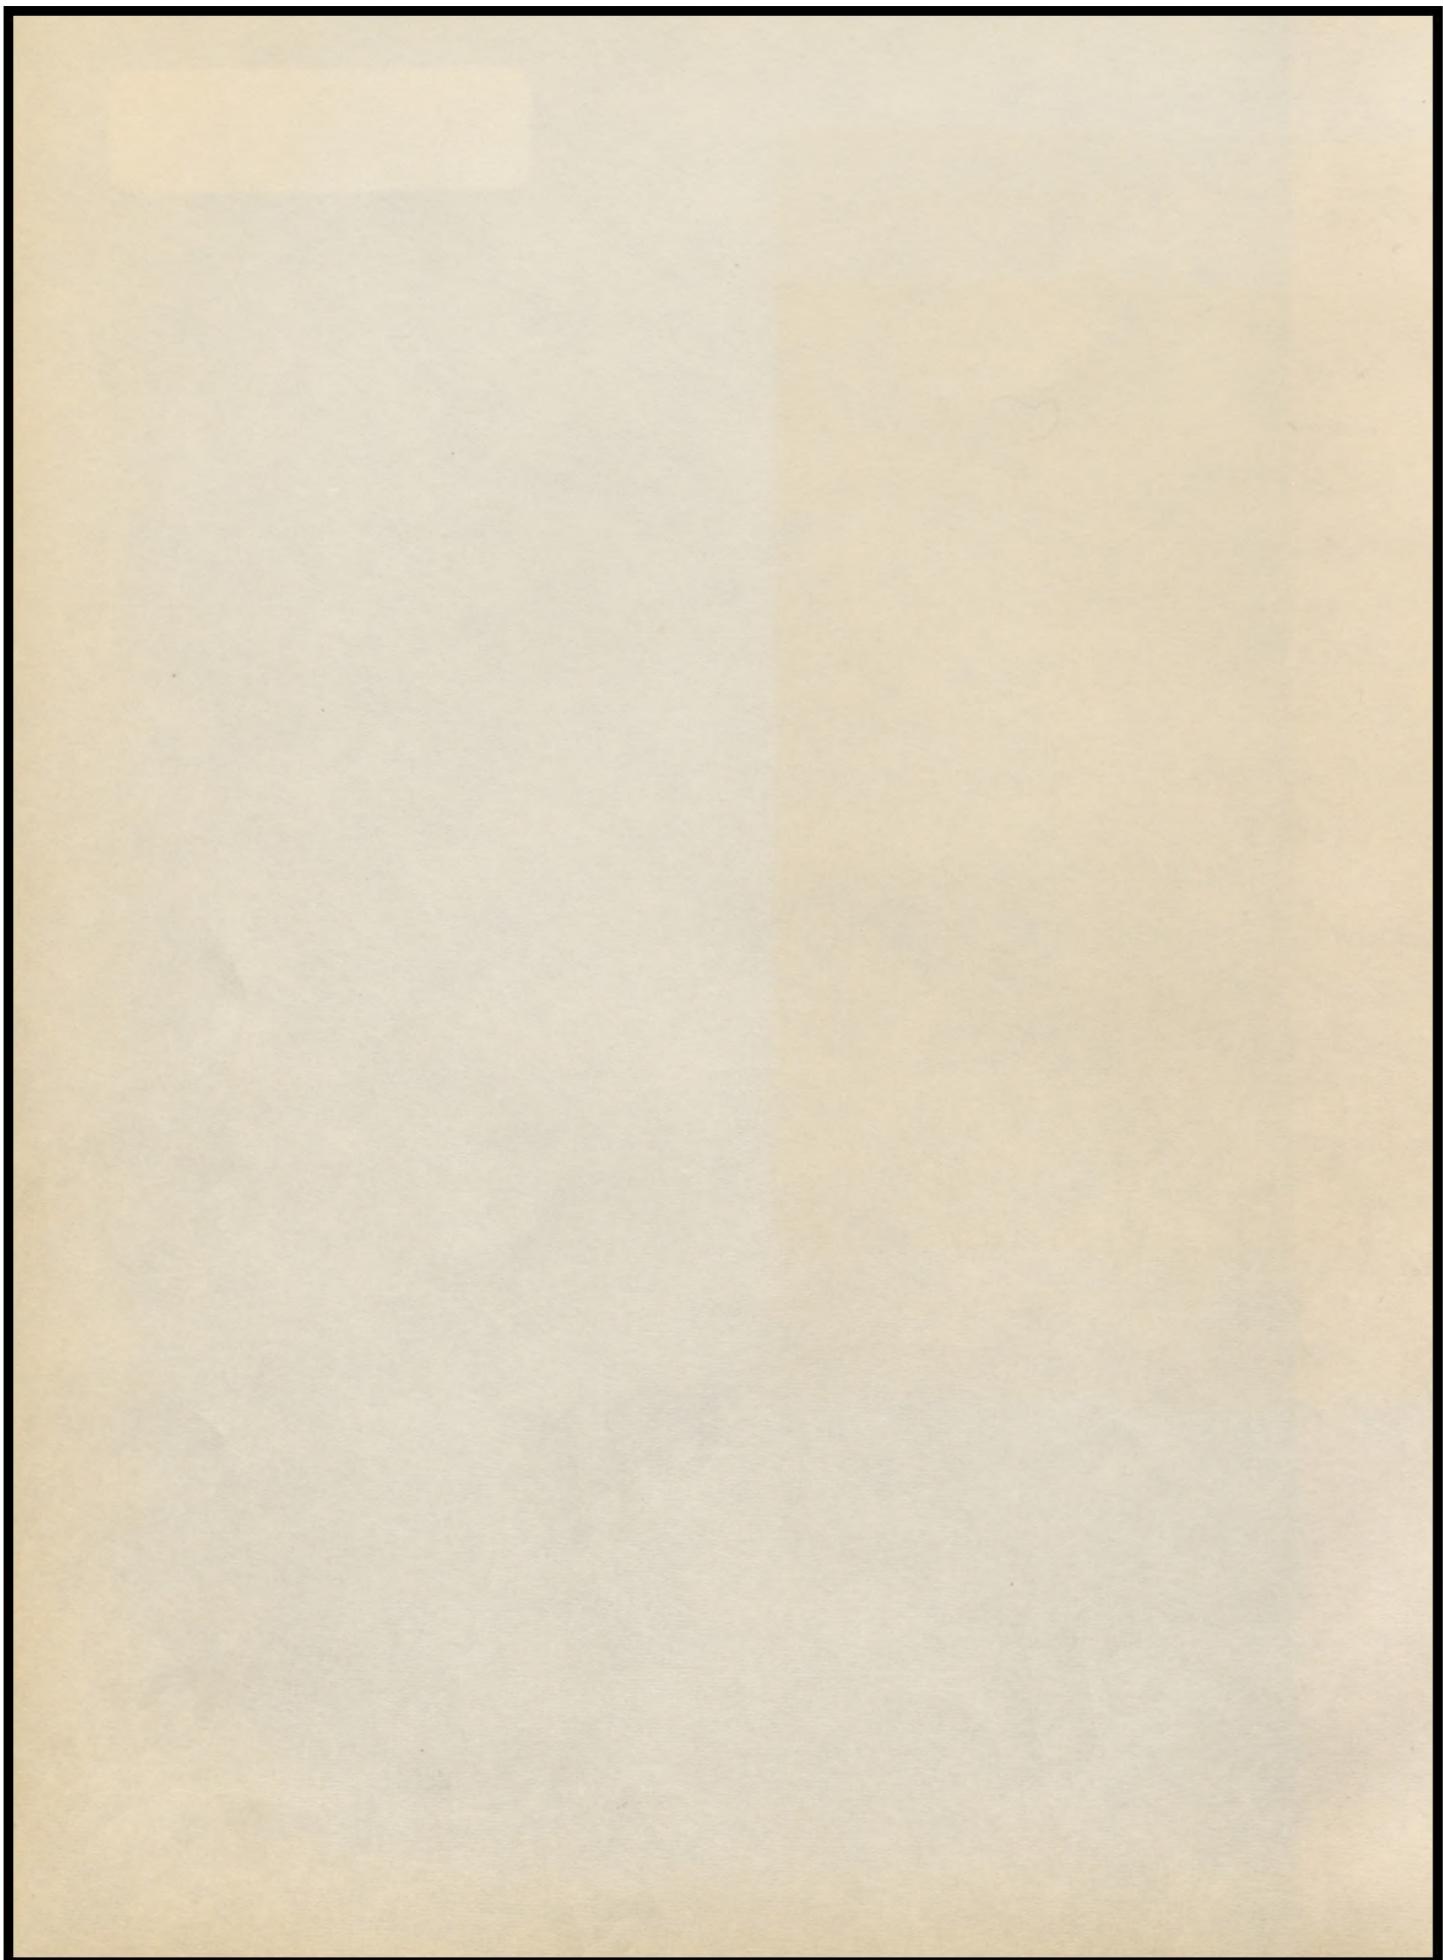

So my favorite teacher - for should I say - my favorite person ~~graduated~~ in this school! I'm glad I was chosen to be a cheerleader because I probably wouldn't have known you so well if I hadn't.

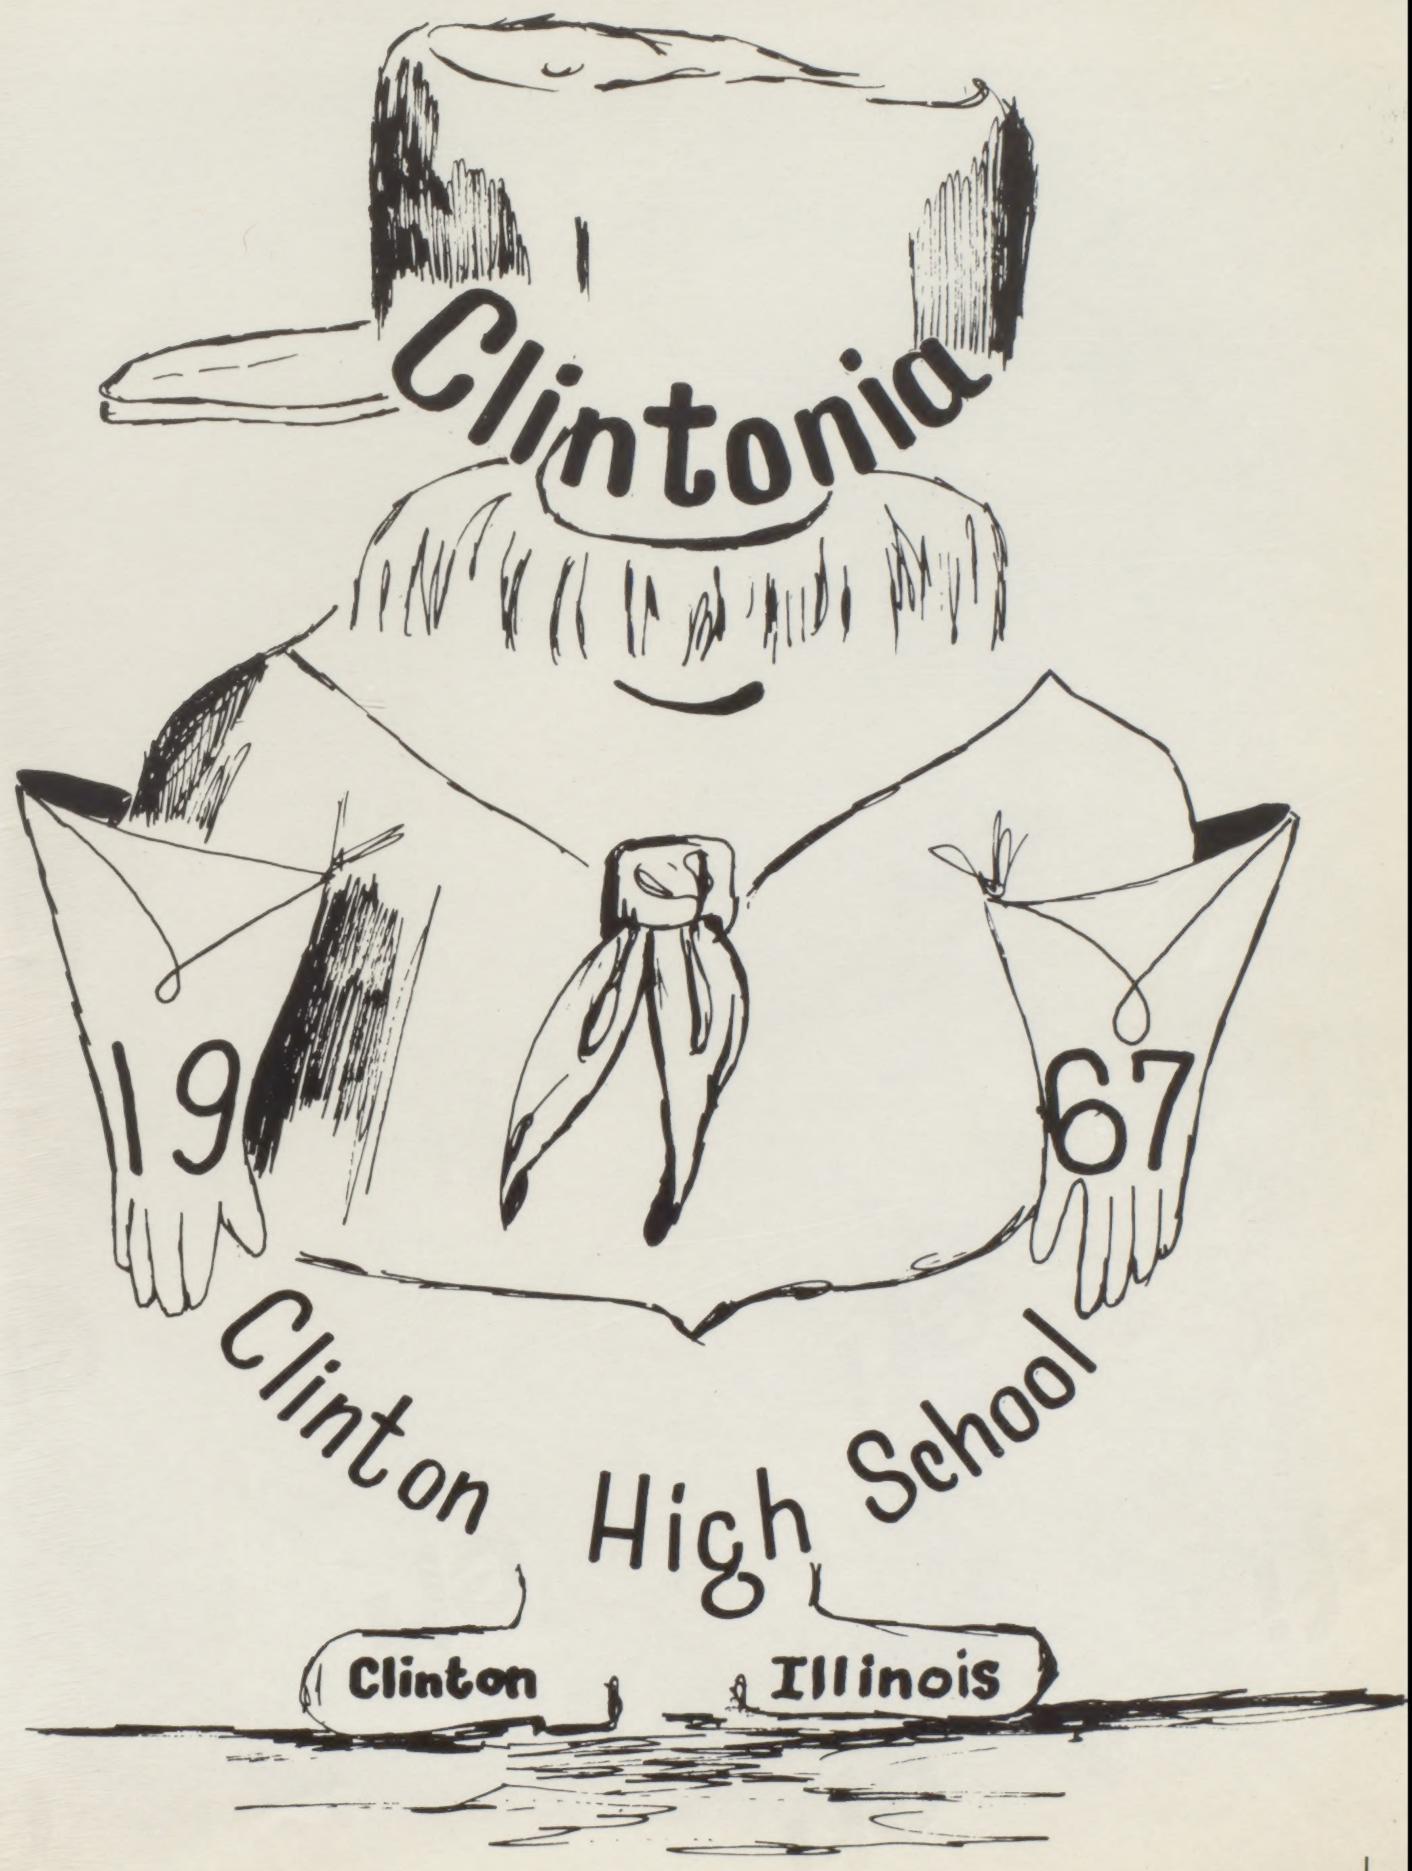

We've really had some good times the past three years. I hope next year beats all! I wish you were going to clinic with us - then you could be our counsellor.

All the luck in the world to yours and may God bless you.

Yours always,

Deb

THE FIGHTING SPIRIT OF THE CLINTON MAROONS

Throughout the years since our country's beginning, the fighting spirit of the American people has been demonstrated in many ways. The bravery of the Continental Army, the devotion of the early Puritans, and the perseverance of the rugged pioneers are all good examples of the quality. The 1966-1967 Clintonia staff hopes this same fighting spirit can be seen in this school's students' accomplishments not only on the athletic field, but in scholastic achievement and in the overall attitude of fairness and faith in their school. The future years will bring many new and unusual challenges. May the fighting spirit of the Clinton Marooners prevail against all that the future may throw into their paths.

WE DEDICATE . . .

Mrs. Helm -
Thanks for all your good help this year -
You're a great co-worker
See you on the golf course this summer
D. Kratz

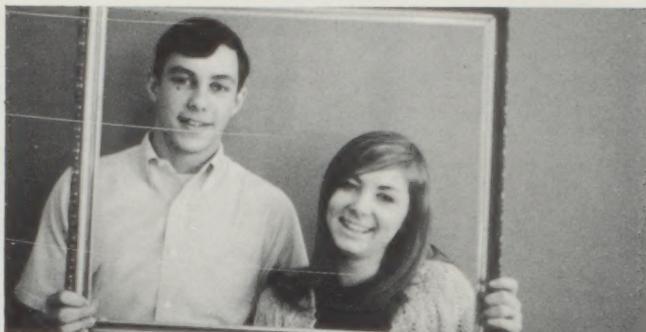

The Clintonia Staff of 1967 takes great pleasure in dedicating the 1967 Clintonia to Mrs. DeLores Kratz. Mrs. Kratz has been the Girls Physical Education instructor at Clinton High School for seven years. During these seven years she has worked relentlessly to improve our school and its students, and has sponsored the Girl's Athletic Association. Her teaching techniques include a rigorous physical fitness program for which all of Clinton High girls should be thankful. We want to thank Mrs. Kratz for a job well done and wish her many more prosperous and rewarding years at Clinton Community High School.

SENIORS

In the beginning, four years seemed an eternity. To us freshmen, graduation day was but a dream. Now, though, that dream has come true. Time passed swiftly; and now we, the departing seniors, have but fond memories of our high school years. Just as grandfather clocks survive through generations - just as puppies become their masters, underclassmen become graduates. We have grown in wisdom, in strength, in spirit. Hard work and occasional laughter brought us through some difficult times. Strangers became best of friends; textbooks became worn from continuous use. With lumps in our throats and hopes for the future, we bid farewell to C. C. H. S.

A.F.S. STUDENT

Miss Manuela da Costa of Recife, Brazil is Clinton High School's Foreign exchange Student for the 1966-67 school year. Miss da Costa is 18 years old and a member of the senior class. Since Brazil has a semi-tropical climate, she was especially thrilled with the snow which falls here during the winter. She loves to sing and dance, but she expressed some notes of surprise after her first real work-out with Mrs. Kratz' P.E. class. She has made many new friends in Clinton and admits that she is already sad about having to leave the United States in July.

Manuela rides with last year's queen.

Manuela found the teachers helpful.

She examines paper sculpture.

She participates in the government assembly.

JUNIORS

Our third year in CCHS has flown by quickly. The fun of producing the Junior Class Play, the problem of choosing the perfect class ring, and the work and thrill of the Prom all helped to make our junior year a memorable one.

It's hard to realize that we have only one more year of high school left. It seems only yesterday that we started climbing the ladder of education. With this in mind, we the class of '68 will strive to make our final year at CCHS the finest one yet.

JUNIOR CLASS

We have delved deep into those books of knowledge
We have prepared (we think) for all the trials of college
We have much more today than from the two years past;
We have become real juniors; upper class, at last!

We walk through the halls in concentration,
And we think of the years of anticipation.
The years have matured us, this has been said.

As this year fades to become our past,
We will be seniors, our title at last.
This thought, however, leaves us a little blue
For in one short year, C.C.H.S., we will leave you.

SOPHOMORES

The second year of our career in high school has fled as quickly as our Freshman year. There was one major difference, though. As Sophomores we were no longer aliens to CCHS, but returned after the summer well-orientated with the processes of higher education.

The completion of our Sophomore year marked the end of one-half of our high school education. The remaining two years at CCHS will prove to be our best ones yet! So, the Sophomore Class continues to look ahead with only one or two nostalgic glances into the past.

SOPHOMORES

We have gained a year of knowledge in our quest for learning
To reach a goal of our choosing is our heartfelt yearning.
When we began this year of vital education.
To be mistaken for Freshmen filled us with indignation.

We have looked back with smiles at our first awkward year
When all the halls and rooms filled us with awesome fear
Now that we know the ways of dear Clinton High
We're glad to have two years to go before we say good-bye.

Next year will find us in that most coveted class
And we shall all be known as upperclassmen, at long last.
We shall feel our own importance, of this you can be sure-
With such a group in the Junior class, anything can occur.

FRESHMEN

This, our first year of high school, has been one of confusion, mystery, and adjustment. As Freshman, we entered a new phase of our life with misgivings and fears. Gradually, throughout the months of the school year, we found ourselves "fitting in" and becoming a true part of the student body of CCHS.

After conquering the jungle of the halls and losing the dazed look that identified us as Freshman, we are now looking forward to three more years in CCHS.

FRESHMEN

As freshmen we entered these ivy halls
"Shy" but determined, hearing familiar calls.
With our hearts in our throats, we wandered around
Locating classrooms as the bells sound

After much anxiety and total frustration
We settled down to months of deliberate meditation
With complete surprise and unconcealed delight
Our first semester ended, the second was in sight.

Now that our first year has come to an end,
We don't feel too different from when we began.
But as summer passed into memories of yore
We shall return as important Sophomores.

CCHS IN THE CLASSROOM

DEPARTMENTS

The courses offered in the different academic departments of Clinton Community High School enables a student to take a wide variety of studies. Through the different departments, one can prepare for college, take courses for vocational agriculture, or learn how to be a good homemaker.

The different departments include the basic studies such as English and mathematics. Also offered are extra courses such as art and foreign languages. All in all, we feel that CCHS offers a well-rounded curriculum.

ENGLISH

Freshmen students participate in their first year of high school English under the guidance of Mrs. Smith. Besides the four years of English, Speech and Drama are also offered by the department.

AGRICULTURE

Mr. Prather emphasizes that there are fields other than farming open to Ag. students. These fields include forestry & public recreation.

At C.C.H.S., the Business Department is headed by Mr. Paul Harden. The Business Department offers classes which orientate students into the vast world of business.

A class in the Social Science Department is led into the past by Mr. Siebert.

The Social Science department is headed by Mr. Roy Thompson and offers classes in American history, World history, government, Economics, and sociology.

HOME ECONOMICS

In addition to the courses already offered, the home economics department has added Homemaking occupations which give girls enrolled in Home Ec. practical on the job experience which will be useful in the present as well as the future.

MATH DEPARTMENT

Four years of Math are offered to those students who are interested in continuing in math, engineering, computer programming, and related areas. One doesn't have to plan on entering college to benefit from the courses offered in this department.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT

This year our foreign language department has extended its offering in Spanish and French to a full four years. Mr. Glasson and Miss Westensee are instructing the students in the use of the lab equipment to learn correct pronunciation.

PHYSICAL ED

This year students make good use of the new gymnastic equipment purchased by the school. Here Mrs. Kratz is instructing one of her classes in the use of part of the equipment.

BIOLOGY DEPARTMENT

The Biology Department is one of the favorites among CCHS students. Mr. Lehman, one of the teachers in the Biology Department, gives much of his time to outside work in Biology. Students greatly enjoy the study of life of plants and animals.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS DEPARTMENT

The boys of CCHS learn to use their hands as well as their minds in the Industrial Arts Department. Many of the skills learned can be put to immediate use, others are college prep.

GUIDANCE

Through the efforts of the Guidance Department, many interesting speakers and films have been provided for the betterment of the students of Clinton Community High School. Besides planning assemblies, the members of the Guidance Department provide help, encouragement, and guidance to try and solve the individual problems of the students.

Constituting the Guidance Department are Mr. Samuel Maxey, Mrs. Carolyn Glasson, and Mrs. Miriam Abbott.

DRIVERS TRAINING

Mr. Baker is the sole teacher of Drivers Education at Clinton Community High School. Seated in the front seat of the new car are Mr. Kenneth Baker and Roger Gentry. In the back are Marsha Stone and Mike Pherigo.

The art department is taught by Mrs. Hall. This year as previous years art is being taught at the Fine Arts Center. Shown in the picture at the left is Mrs. Hall showing Nancy Gash how to make a mobile.

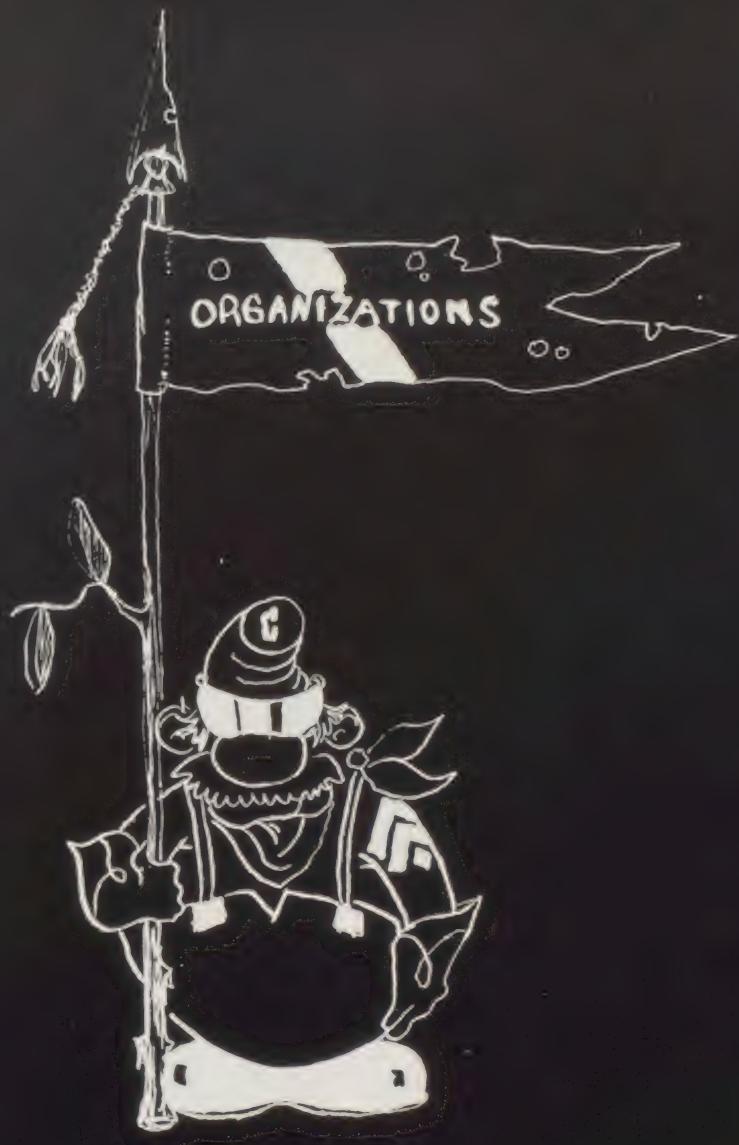

Last year the part of the school building containing the industrial arts department was damaged by fire. Throughout the rest of the school year, the summer, and into the 1966-67 school year work was done to replace the shop.

Shown here are two pictures of the shop after completion of the building.

ORGANIZATIONS

One of the best expressions of the fine spirit of the Clinton High School is found in the tremendous job done by the various organizations. These clubs were organized for the betterment and enjoyment of the students. We feel that they have accomplished this purpose.

ATHLETICS

Nowhere is the fighting spirit of the Clinton Maroons more evident than in the field of sports. In all divisions of athletics, the knights fight valiantly if not always successfully to defend the honor of CCHS.

We, of CCHS are proud of the boys who take the time to practice so that they may truly represent their school.

A great deal of emphasis is put on sports, and rightly so. Where else can the school spirit and pride be so aptly expressed than on the athletic field? As long as there is a team known as the "Clinton Maroons", the fighting spirit of this school will continue to thrive.

CLINTON MAROONS 1967 CHAMPS!!!!

Come on you guys!!

Jump! Jump!

Okay you guys...LET'S GO!

Sink It...Sink It...Sink It...

The 1966-1967 Maroon's basketball season was anything but a success as far as the record is concerned.

Careful study of the record will show a lot of scoring effort on the behalf of the Maroons. In several of the games we lost, we were downed by only four or five points.

The fine ball handling of Don Wilson has aided the Maroons tremendously this season. Although Wilson broke the school record scoring 50 points against MacArthur, we are sure he wouldn't have been able to do it without the skillfull assistance and set-ups from his teammates.

It's a great honor for me...

Now if you...and you be ready to... and then...

There were only three seconds left, and 54 threw me from that vast distance from the basket, yet I dropped through as the buzzer sounded.

Don Wilson has been the spearhead in the Clinton offensive play and is now averaging slightly better than 23 points per game. In addition he has been doing a fine defensive job.

Although not listed as a starter, Steve Alsup has been giving the Maroons a terrific job as a replacement. Several times Coach Don Tune has in-year can inviting the champion ship game Friday night.

Gene Evans opened the game's scoring when he made a foul shot with 7:41 remaining in the first period. Litchfield came back with a pair of goals to make the score 4-1 in their favor, but the Panther lead only lasted until the was 3:18 remaining in the opening quarter. At this time, Don Wilson netted his first basket of the game to tie the score at 8-8. The Maroon never trailed after that.

Late in the first frame, Tim Hagenbruch broke a 12-12 tie when he garnered two points from under Clinton's basket. Wilson, who was fouled under the basket, followed with a pair of free throws and later added a bucket. At the end of the quarter, Clinton led, 18-16.

In the second stanza, the Maroons pumped in 25 points. Hagenbruch tossed in 10 of the 16 points during that period.

Clinton began the second with a nine point advantage. During the third quarter, Wilson collected six of the 15 points which made him the top scorer. Paul Wilson Litchfield was next with 2 points.

In the fourth period, Clinton picked up 23 points to put out of reach of Litchfield. The Maroons shot well, 24 of 32 free throws. Clinton Maroons won the contest in the Shelby Tournament Monday evening upending favored Litchfield, 67-57. and 30 against Litchfield. Although Windsor was shooting well, three straight baskets by the Maroons midway through the quarter held Clinton hold off their opponents. At the end of the frame, Clinton led 18-10.

In the second period, Windsor pumped in 11 field goals and caught Clinton in a 30 deadlock at intermission.

In the third stanza, Windsor went ahead by seven points early in the period. Wilson cut the margin to five points when he threaded the nets. #23 Steve Alsup came through with a bucket to make the score 42-39. Windsor, Alsup entered the game in to the second half and helped Clinton with some clutch rebounding.

With less than 10 minutes remaining in the game, Wilson picked all off the floor on a two-point basket and two points. Rick Smith had with a field goal

try to put Clinton with 1:59 remaining.

In the final second period, Windsor netted straight baskets to a 9-48 lead. A technical, however, was called on Wilson, shooting on, made good the tie the score. The 2:02 remaining, the Maroons inbounded a ball to Wilson, who then made the shot that made the score 40-41 Clinton.

When Windsor garnered its first basket in the fourth quarter to tie the score, Alsup had the Maroons in the lead again with a field goal. He scored again on a rebound after the Windsor basket. With 5:01 remaining, Alsup's third basket of the quarter put Clinton ahead to stay.

With 2:40 remaining, the Maroons reeled off 8 straight points to break the game wide open. After Windsor scored, Clinton racked up 6 more points to clinch the game, the final verdict being 72-59.

LOOKING AROUND . . .

"BIEDERMANN AND THE FIREBUGS"

The Senior Class presented "Biedermann and the Firebugs", written by the Swiss playwright Max Frisch in 1959, on April 8 and 9.

Translated by Mordecai Gorelik, the play was produced off-Broadway in 1963.

"A Learning Play Without a Lesson" takes place in our lifetime. "Gottlieb Biedermann, a cautious German businessman, discovers that the two men who have entered his home uninvited are the arsonists who have already burned down much of the town. He and his simple minded wife, concerned only with saving themselves and their home, lodge them, feed them a sumptuous dinner, and provide them with all the matches they can possibly use - all of which serves only to postpone the inevitable holocaust."

"Whether the play is regarded as a hilarious, almost slapstick farce or as a satirical attack against complacency depends on the point of view one brings to it. Using dramatic techniques as old as allegory and as new as the Theatre of the Absurd, Frisch reveals the actions and attitudes of people confronted with a powerful and ruthless enemy."

PROM NIGHT '67!

On May 5, 1967, the members of the class of 1967 were the guests of the class of 1968 at the Junior-Senior Prom. "Sayonara" was the Prom's theme and the decorations seemed to create a Japanese atmosphere. The stage was set to represent a Japanese garden complete with cherry trees in full bloom and a pagoda in pink and blues. A small but unique fountain was used as a center attraction, and the entrance was guarded by two Japanese characters.

The Junior Class did a fine job of entertaining the Senior Class, and everyone will agree that it was truly a night to remember.

The members of the National Honor Society are to be commended for their many accomplishments. These hard-working students combine hard study with other activities, deserving to be classified as well-rounded individuals.

Character, scholarship, and leadership are some of the qualities taken into consideration when choosing those students to be honored in this way.

Congratulations and good luck to these fine examples of the student body of Clinton Community High School.

JUST FOR FUN!?

Once upon a time there was a little girl who loved to "play house". She had a large "family" whom she cooked and cleaned for. She played this way every day and loved it, even though it was just pretend.

Then this same little girl grew up a little and went to school. She soon forgot her dolls and decided to prepare for her future. Maybe she would be rich, or an astronaut, or the first woman president, or rich. She studied hard and dreamed of the future.

Upon reaching high school, the work load increased, but she had fortitude. She studied hard, joined many clubs, won honors, but she was confused.

She finally reached her first goal; a high school diploma. She now was educated, but what was she going to do? She found a field where she could use all her knowledge. So the cycle ends where it began, only now it isn't just pretend.

Now her dreams of the future go like this: "Maybe Johnny will be an astronaut, or Sally could grow up to be the first woman president..."

GRADUATION 1967

Graduation exercises for the Clinton Community High School Class of 1967 were held in the CCHS gymnasium on the night of June 2, 1967.

The speaker was Mr. George Richmond, a former principal of Clinton High School who served this community for nine years.

The Clintonia Staff of 1966-67 wants to congratulate the graduates and to wish them luck in whatever they may do.
